Technical Questions Answered

As well as our usual mix of Short Stories, Poems and Songs, this week's Write-on session will try to help people who are experiencing difficulty with presenting their work in Word, PowerPoint and Zoom.

Members who have used these programmes for years will be on hand to discuss simple and complicated issues that may arise. No question will be ignored and a practical demonstration of how to tackle formats, margins, font size, headings, justification, line spacing and so on will be discussed.

- Did you ever wish that you could include a photo with your work?
- Do you know how to include an audio recording of your writing?
- Did you ever think about producing a professional PowerPoint presentation?

All of these issues and more will be discussed this week.

Please submit your questions in advance so that we can group our answers in a practical and efficient manner.
