Write-on Newsletter

A Packed Programme for Tonight's Session

Once again, our Mug of the Month Competition takes centre stage. We have ten entries with the keywords 'watch' and 'plan'.

Last month's winner usually sits it out – in order to ensure that we have a different winner every month. Richard has sportingly submitted his entry Flood and Fire which will be treated as a separate poem and displayed after the competition is over.

The very best of luck to everyone. We all look forward to voting and the chance to be called a 'Mug' for at least one month!

The WOWO (What's On Write-on) listed below tells its own story. As well as the competition for Mugsy, there are two short stories and a number of poems on the menu for this week.

It is great to see such enthusiastic writing from our members. If you haven't written anything for a few weeks, why not consider getting a piece prepared for our Christmas Special on Thursday 15 December?

Those of you who have experienced the Write-on Christmas Special will know that we have great fun on the night and everyone tries to have some piece ready for Christmas.

We look forward to receiving your seasonal writings!
